

The media ownership laws must not be relaxed or eliminated under the term, "deregulation" or by any other means. The American public has a right to independent news reporting, and merging the giant medias and/or swallowing up the smaller/independent medias will reduce diversity and promote 'special interest' reporting.